Creating AnzirAct: Sparking the Idea

Spot that 'Create AnzirAct' button at the top right? Click it to start the adventure of uploading your content to the platform.

Fleshing Out Your AnzirAct

Here's where you get down to details. Upload a cover image that captures the essence of your story, give it a name, pick its genre(s), language, and how long you think it'll take for players to go from start to finish. Don't forget to introduce your world with a short description and share a bit about yourself and your creative journey.
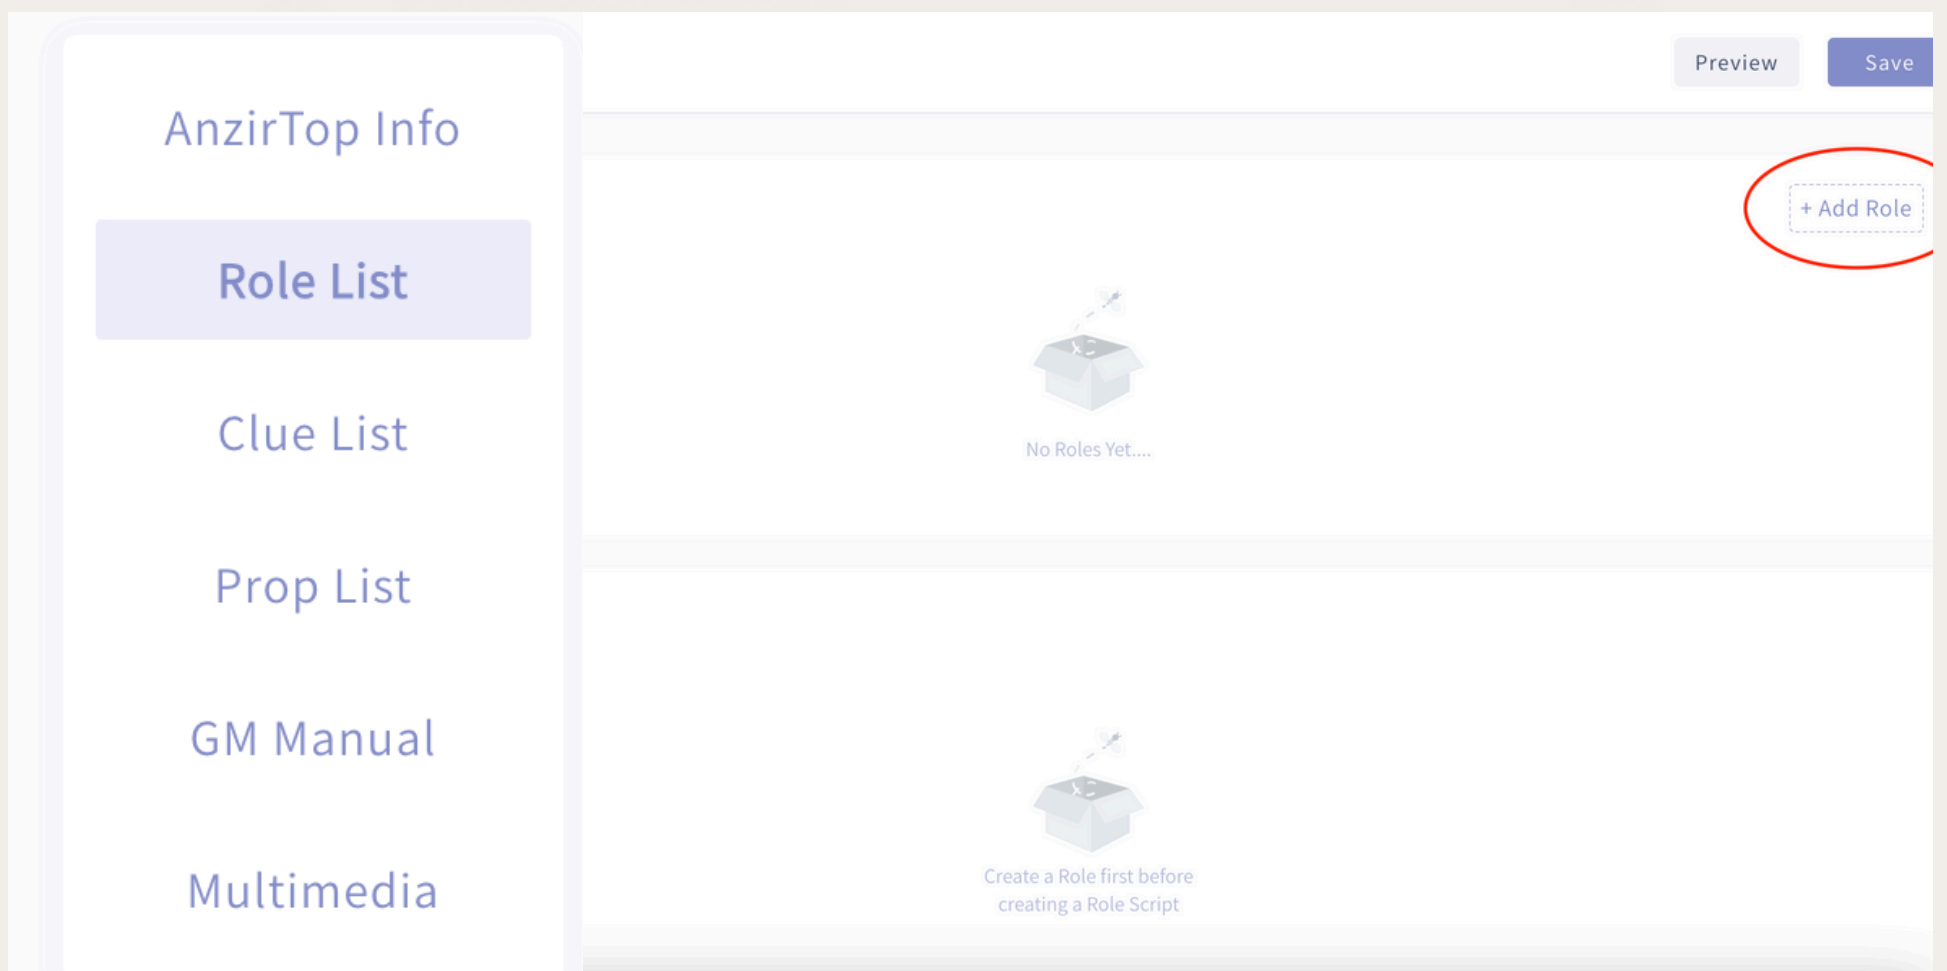

Crafting Characters: The Heroes of Your Story

Click 'Add Role' to start creating the characters that will inhabit your world. Give them names, faces by uploading images, write their backgrounds, and define their journey in your story.

Create a Role first before creating a Role Script

Weaving the Narrative: Script Writing

Now onto the script. This is where your story takes shape. Start by adding a new script section, throw in an introduction, and then dive into crafting the content, act by act. Click 'Add New Script' to add an additional script to your role.
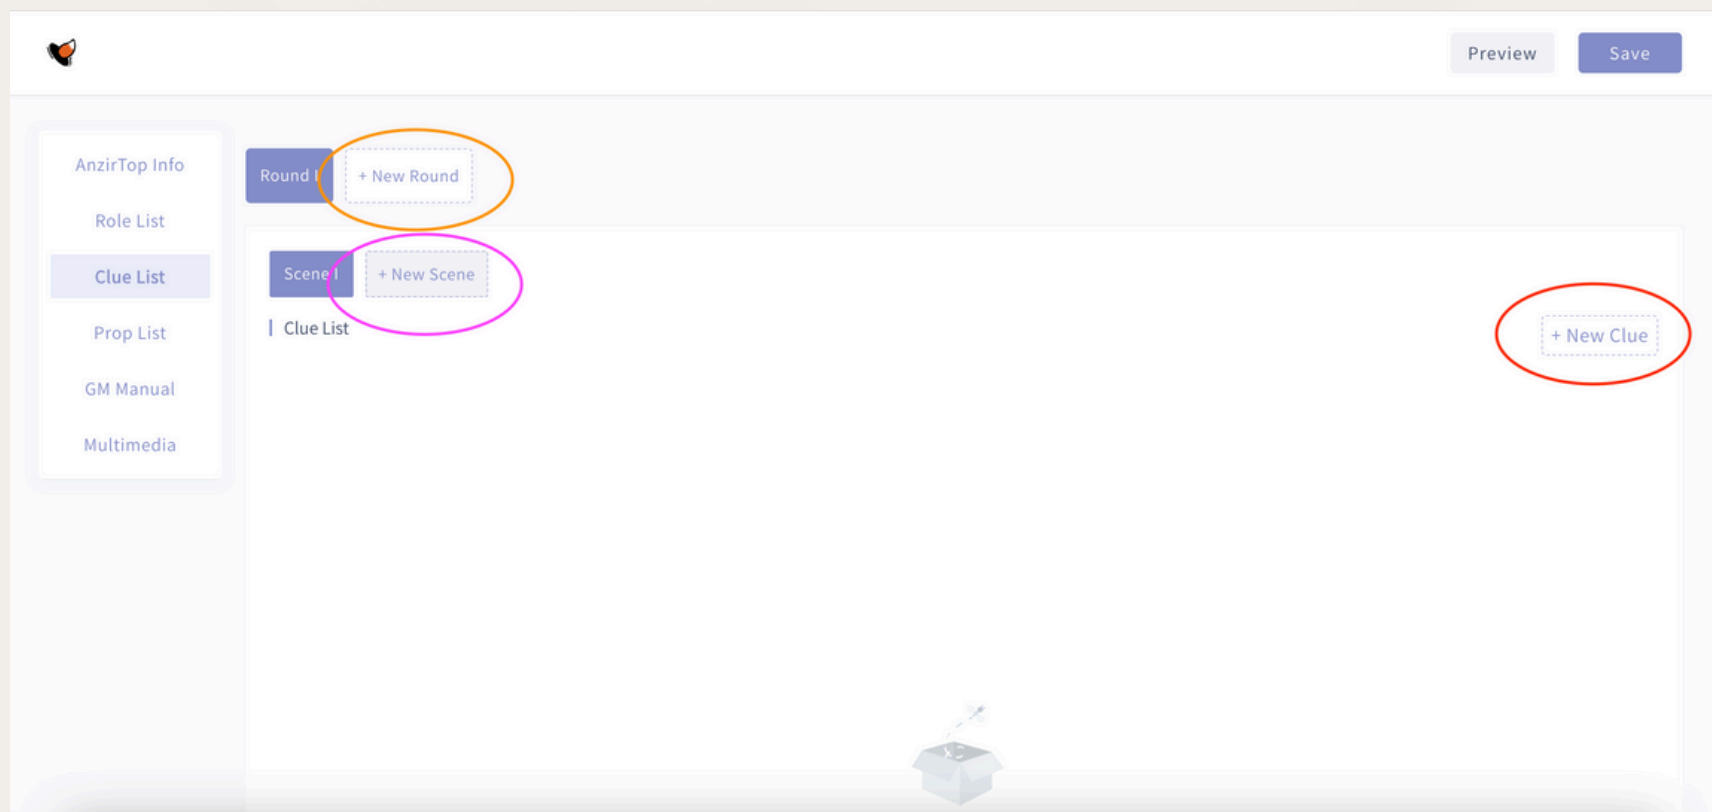

Mysteries and Revelations: Adding Clues

Every good story has its mysteries. Use the Clue List to add intriguing elements that players can discover along the way. It's like leaving breadcrumbs for them to follow. Click 'Add Clue' to add a clue to each scene. You can also add scenes to each round. When you are ready to add scenes to the next round, click 'New Scene'.
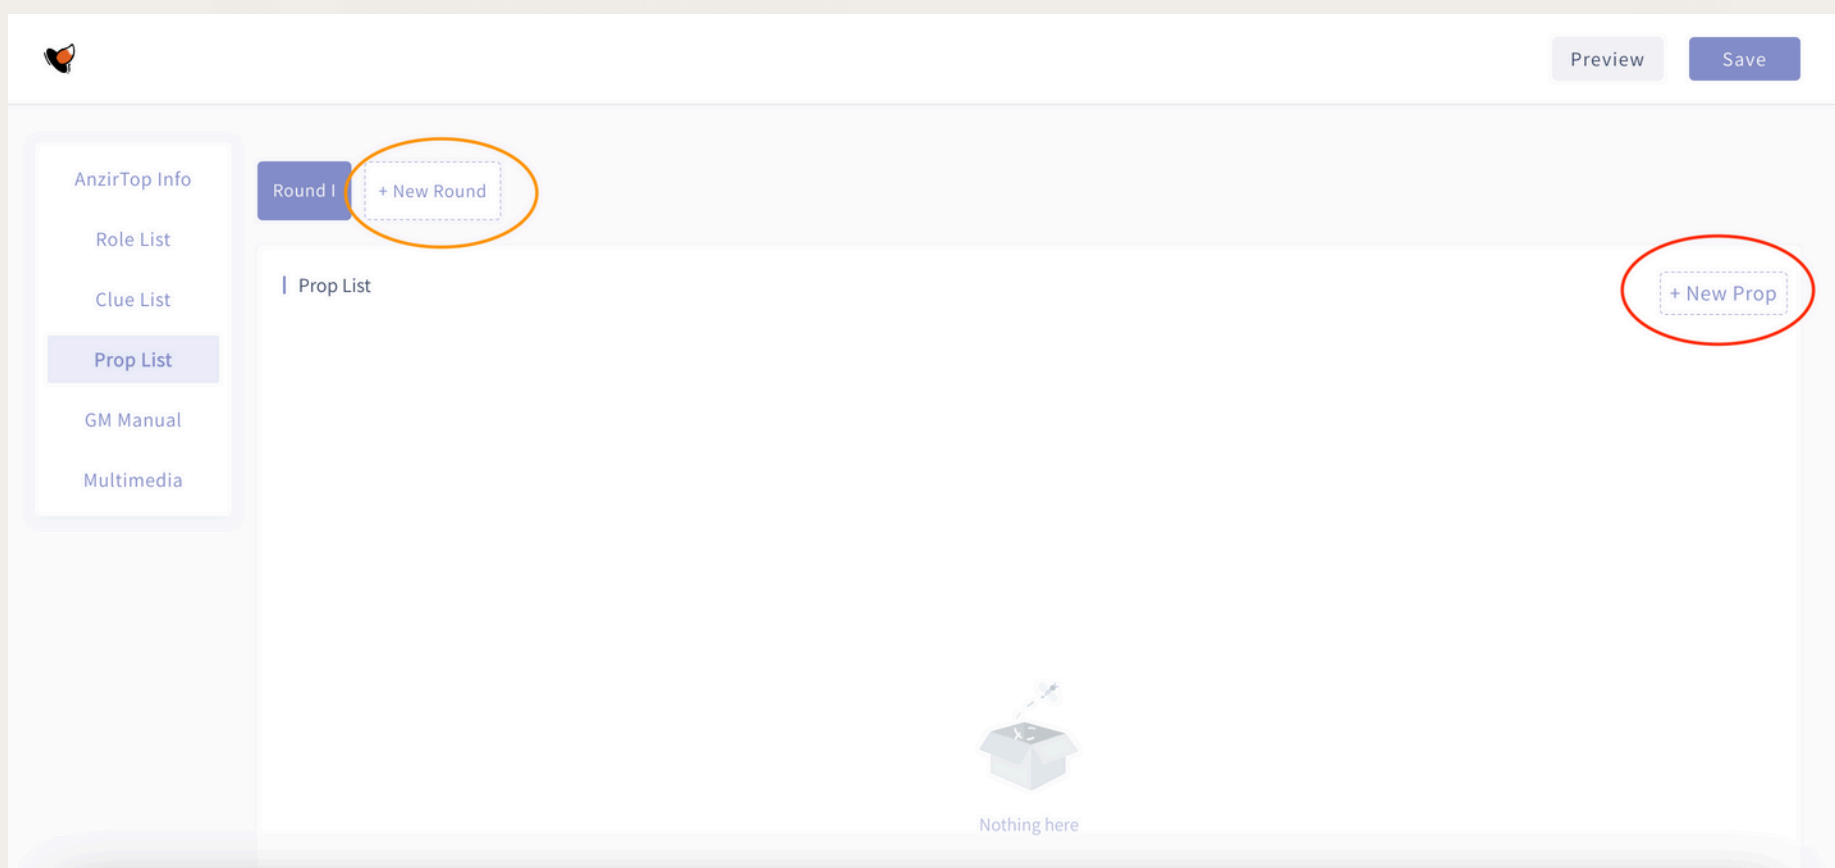

Props and Pieces: Building Your World

Props add depth to your narrative. Whether it's a magical artifact or a simple tool, add these items to your Prop List to enrich the storytelling experience. The 'New Prop' button allows you to add props to your story. Add new rounds by clicking the 'New Round' button.
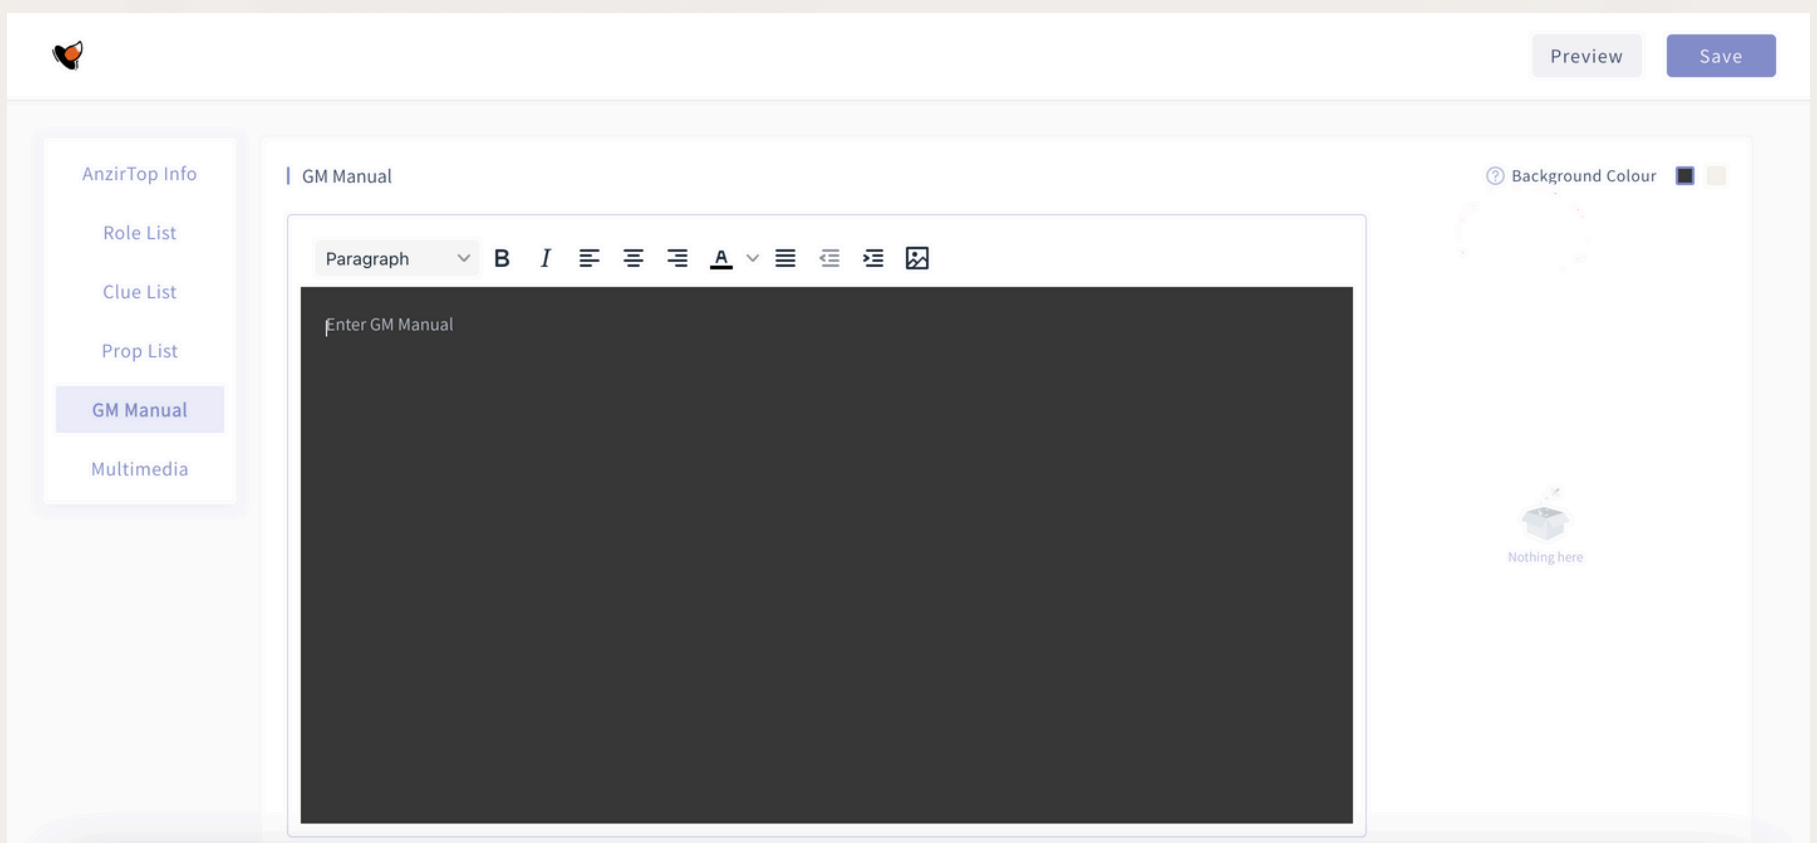

Guiding the Masters: The GM Manual

The GM Manual is your way of talking directly to the Game Masters. It's here you'll lay down the groundwork, offer tips, and ensure they know how to bring your world to life.
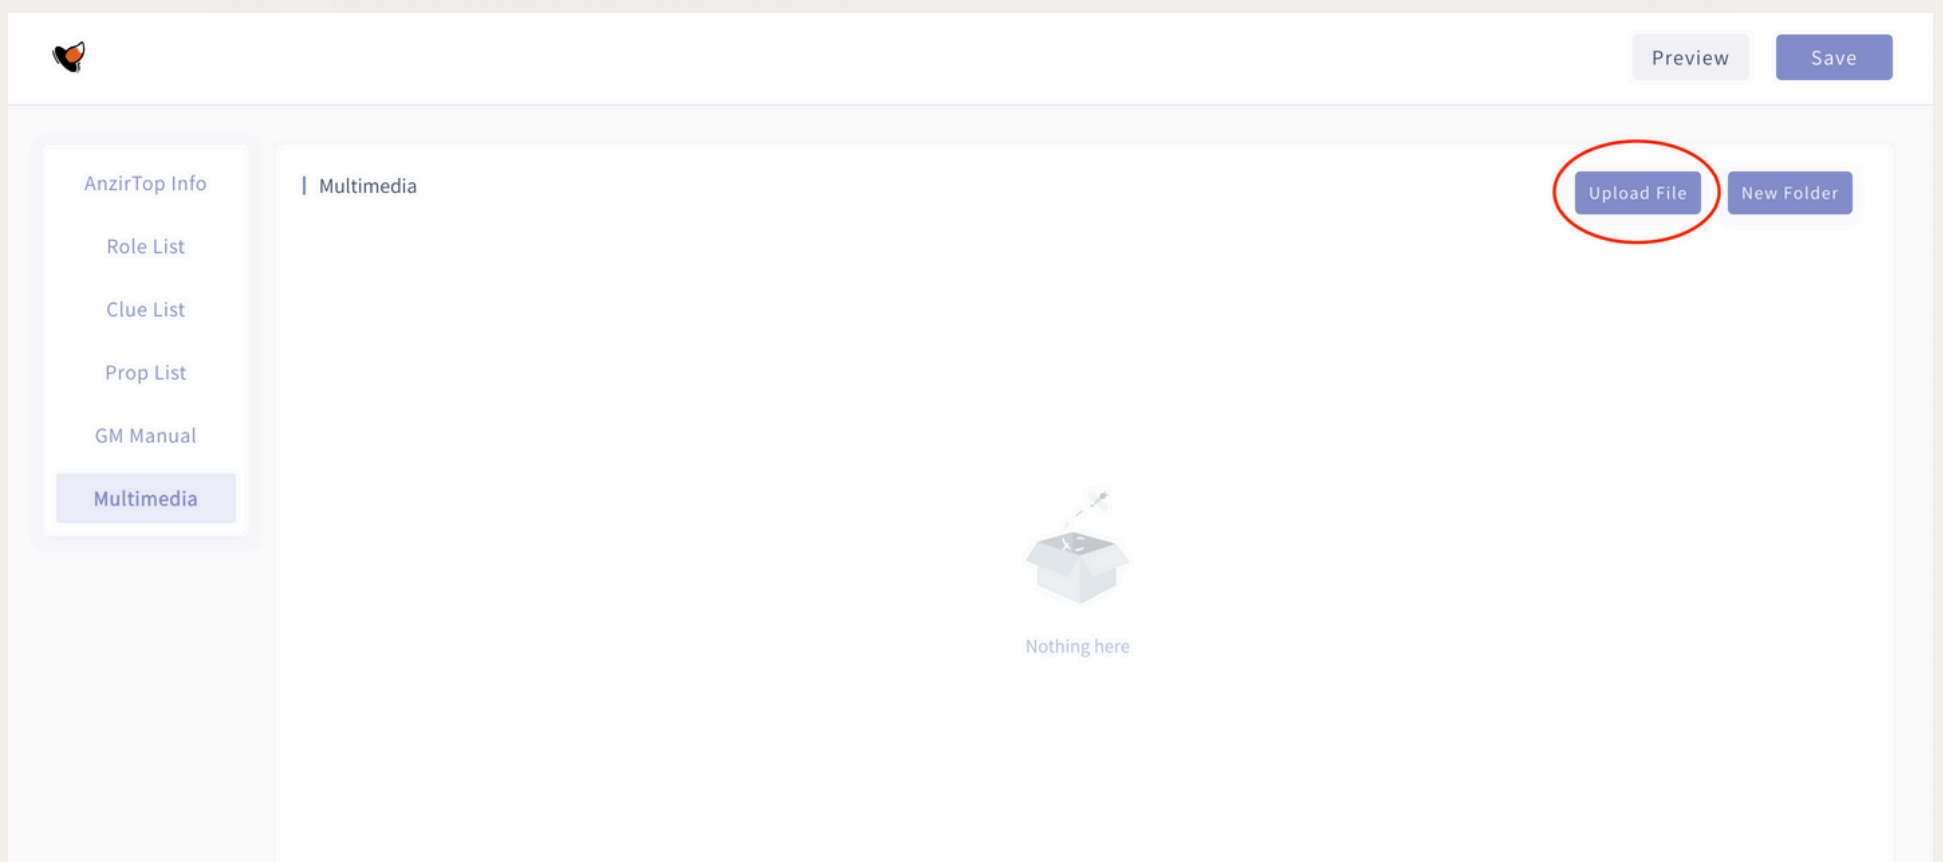

A Dash of Reality: Adding Multimedia

Want to make your story even more immersive? Add images, sounds, or videos to your content. Click 'Upload Media' to upload a file. You can add links to images, videos and audio files.

The Litmus Test: Trying It Out

Now that you have finished bringing your story to life, it is time to go back to the Dashboard. Click the fox tail logo on the top left hand side.

Before publishing your story, take it for a test drive. Preview, save, and test your AnzirAct to make sure everything's just right. This will upload it to our AnzirFox app. Click 'Test' to submit your AnzirAct to the AnzirFox app for testing.
